DETAILED ACTION

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S.

Patent No. 2,760,303 to Del Mas in view of U.S. Patent No. 6,511,359 B1 to Lui.

Art Unit: 3712

Del Mas discloses the claimed invention except for a second spring attaching the neck to the head. However, Lui teaches a bobble head doll comprising the aforementioned limitation (see figs.1-4). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the doll of Del Mas, in view of Lui, such that it would provide the doll of Del Mas with a spring in place of the elastic element that attaches the neck to the head for the purpose of enhancing the erratic movement of the head.
